Got an Early Bird?

Forget fretting about the upcoming school year with older kids who sleep in. If you've got a toddler who thinks the day starts at 4 or 5 a.m., you need some sanity-preserving changes right now. Here's advice on adjusting his sleep habits so you can get a little more shut-eye.

August Contests Kids Alarm Clock

"Time to get up for school!" Help your child master the art of getting up and getting ready for the day with the fun Kid'Sleep alarm clock by Claessens' Kids. This nightlight and alarm clock is perfect for preschoolers, kindergarteners and early elementary schools kids. Parents can set the Kid'Sleep for any time with or without the sound function. Kid'Sleep is available online at www.livelovedream.com and at major retail establishments. Win yours today by visiting westchesterfamily.com. Suggested retail price, $39.99. Contest ends August 27, 2012.

Win a Winner!

Enter to win a NAPPA Gold winner – the Aque-duck (www.peachyco.com), the original faucet extender that's portable, easy to install and encourages hand-washing independence. A $12 value, the Aque-duck is available in pink or blue and fits most bathroom faucets. To enter, visit www.NAPPAawards.com. Contest ends Aug. 25, 2012.
